

GLOBAL TCK SUMMIT 2021

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

► MOVING FORWARD TO BE A BLESSING

Virtual Meet
November 5-7, 2021
Save the Dates

Following on from the November 2019 conference in Chiang Mai we invite you to join us for the next Global TCK Summit – online.

- Were your parents involved in cross-cultural ministry?
- Did you grow up in a culture or country different from your parents' culture or country?
- Do you identify as an MK or TCK?
- Do you feel called to care for TCKs in their journey and do you want to connect with other TCK care-givers?
- Do you want to be part of the blessing from 2019 moving forward?

If you have said yes to any of these questions, this summit is for you.

The program will include 3 worship and devotion sessions, 3 plenary sessions and several elective 'Circle Times'.

Danau Tanu

is from a mixed heritage family (Japanese and Chinese/ Indonesian) and has lived in Indonesia, Japan, Canada and currently lives in Australia – where she completed her PhD.

Cristy Jun

grew up as a TCK/MK in the Philippines. She is currently a counselor at Torch Trinity Counseling Center in Korea and she holds the Committee Chair of Global TCK Summit.

Deborah Chagas

was born in Brazil and grew up as a TCK/MK in Senegal and United States. At the moment she is doing an internship at Word of Life North in Brazil.

Ruby Mangaldoss

is a teacher and counselor from Tamil Nadu, south India. She has cared for many MKs/ TCKs over several decades and is known by them as 'Auntie Ruby'.

Registration invitations and detailed program will follow
Contact: globaltcksummit@gmail.com

These are some of the speakers

Other speakers include
Ruth Van Reken, Ulrika Ernvik,
Remo Paul, Pedro Rangel,
Sky Siu.